Report from Sierra Leon

Daniel Turay our country facilitator in Sierra Leon reports that 191 church leaders have graduated in the project in the month of March.

He sends this encouraging testimony: As testified many, with joy in their faces the RP reading challenge have re-schooled, changed their mental mode and approach to key doctrinal issues of the bible and of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and committed themselves to run with RP reaching challenge to other places and encourage their church member to become leaders to help them benefit from the RP Challenge.

One pastor boldly testified that from what he has learnt from the challenge, he has used RP Challenge as an evangelism tool and strategy to reach the unsaved. Join us in praying for planned Activities for the month of April, 2022. The following places are scheduled for gathering and graduations of pastors and church leaders that have completed RP reading challenge: Moyamba District, Southern Region and Kailahun District, Eastern Region.

A Message from Liberia

Jalla Smith sent in a report from the National Convention of the Evangelical Church of Liberia. Jalla was able to challenged many church leaders at the Convention in Rural Montser-rado County. At that convention church leaders came from neighboring countries to Liberia. Those neighboring coun tries church leaders came from Ivory Coast and Sierra Leone. Many of those church leaders consented to undergo the challenge by reading and writing the Book of Romans.

Jalla writes that he is thankful for our prayers on his behalf and asks us to pray specifically that he will be able to visit another county in April to continue the work with church leaders in that region.

Charles Naibei in Kenya

Charles reports that many pastors and church leader have embraced the vision of the Romans Project. On the 5th of March he held a very successful graduation in the Bumula Region. There he hosted over 100 graduates of the project. Most of the pastors shared that the book of Romans is impacting how they prepare for sermons. He is preparing the ground work for another meeting in Lukuyani Kakamega county.
