Country Facilitators' Gathering August 19-25, 2018 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

goals. All gathered—country facilitators (formerly known as directors), Carl and Marshall—found their time together to be very fruitful and encouraging.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

We thank the Board, Dr. Marshall, Pastor Carl, Brother Eremias and Abuna Ken for handling the "gathering" so well. We are now clear on our Mission and Vision!

—Cesar Tallada, Philippines Facilitator

It was so great to have fellowship with you all beloved laborers in the Lord in Addis through RP, may the Lord God Almighty help us accomplish his intention. I arrived safely! God bless you all for your prayers. — Lukas Inyasio, South Sudan Facilitator

After a few months of getting their bearings as RP's new director and RP's new administrator, Marshall Brown and Carl organized a gathering for all the Romans Project Country Facilitators to help clarify and simplify the expression of the RP vision and mission of RP, and together with the facilitators, help determine their roles in achieving those
