

Equipping pastors and leaders to abide in and feed their congregations

Edwin Buwule

Uganda Country Facilitator

Edwin Buwule is married to Rhona and together they have been blessed with three wonderful children: Angie Blessin (12 yrs), Benir Harris (7yrs) and Asher Brent (2.5 yrs.)

Edwin was introduced to the Romans Project in 2013, when a friend invited him to attend an RP vision casting event nearby. He completed the challenge and enjoyed listening to Pastor Scott's sermons on Romans. Later, in 2014, he felt privileged to be asked to do translation work for the Romans Project. When Allen Koki stepped down from facilitating the Romans Project in Uganda in April 2015, Edwin stepped in.

Please pray that the RP challenge would continue to bless Ugandans as Edwin presents it to 200 clergymen and pastors in the towns of Mbale and Soroti in Eastern Uganda. Please pray that the much needed Bibles in certain dialects would be made available, and for protection.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

It was such a drudge for me with the first reading and I didn't think I could manage to get through with the exercise. But the reading did affect me in a very spiritually impacting way! I felt closer to God, and He assured me of His presence while I read through. When I began to hand copy Romans, I fell in love with it as a whole new world of God's richness and fullness began to unfold to me. I became so full of passion about the whole project that I finished within the given time period. It turns out that I was amongst the first to finish the exercise! With this, I developed a special relationship with the RP team.
