

Equipping pastors to abide in and feed their congregations from God's Word.

Update from Burkina Faso

We are so thankful that Simon Ramde has agreed to become the RP International Director for French speaking countries in Africa. He has been serving with RP in the role of Country Facilitator of Burkina Faso since 2018. As the Lord has been opening doors for RP to reach new French-speaking countries, we trust that it will be beneficial to have Simon helping guide and oversee ministry in each of those.

As Simon is stepping into this role, we are thankful that one of his long-time ministry partners and a regional coordinator for RP within Burkina Faso, Lankoadé Amasai, has agreed to be the next RP facilitator.

Please pray that this transition goes smoothly, and for both Simon and Lankoadé as they adjust to their new roles.

John, a pastor in Burkina Faso who has been serving in pastoral ministry for over thirty years, shared with Simon his testimony of his experience with reading and writing the book of Romans.

Pastor John attended theological schools where he studied the Epistle to the Romans several times. But when he began to read Romans as part of the Romans Challenge, he began to discover deep truths that he hadn't known before. He is learning a lot by studying the book of Romans and these Biblical truths are influencing his own spiritual life and how he serves in his pastoral ministry.

Graduation in Botswana

Kenosi, the RP facilitator in Botswana, was able to celebrate a graduation with eleven pastors who completed the Romans Challenge. When given the opportunity to share about their experience in reading and writing the book of Romans, this is what one of the pastors shared, "I have learned that we are all sinners due to the fact that we fall short of the glory of God. And now that we are accepted in Christ we are no longer slaves of sin... Reading the same book of the Bible 20 times helped me to read the Bible more than before. It also helped me to pray because I could see some prayer points in the book of Romans."

Pray for these recent RP graduates; may their relationship with the Lord continue to deepen as they continue to study the Bible.

RP Equipping Evangelists

Alan, Uganda's RP facilitator, is working to get connected with a pastor who oversees a lot of street evangelism. He is hopeful that the Romans Challenge will become a resource and training material used by these evangelists.

The book of Romans has one of the clearest explanations of the gospel in Scripture. It is exciting to think of evangelists equipped with the truths of this book and able to share the gospel clearly with all who hear them.

May the Lord use RP to equip evangelists so they can boldly and accurately proclaim the gospel.
