Equipping pastors to abide in and feed their congregations from God's Word.

Update from Guinea

Since Guinea opened to the Romans Project nine months ago, Pierre' Gnouma Leno reported in July that 273 pastors and deacons have completed the reading and writing of the book of Romans. Each of these commissioned alumni has been challenged to tell other pastors about the Romans Project. Just imagine the multiplication potential if they all follow through! One pastor in Kissidougou had this to say at his commissioning, "I was touched by this way of studying the Bible. It is very effective for our understanding and discovering many things hidden in the Bible, and it changes our way of seeing the word of God. I would ask the organizers to continue, and that all the servants of God be equipped in Guinea with this training. That is my prayer!"

Pierre' himself had this to say about the Romans Project and the value of the challenge for the equipping of pastors for the work of ministry, "The most suitable and simple means for a consistent and perfect servant before God is in the meditation on the word of God. If, therefore, we want to be servants after the heart of God, it is to dedicate ourselves to reading and transcribing like this way of the RP. If I could make a choice today, it is to only be attached to this ministry of the Romans Project. Because I'm very happy when I do!"

Commissioning by Pierre'

Praise God for His blessing upon the Romans Project ministry in Guinea and for raising up a godly facilitator who is passionate about His word and the RP. Pray that the pastors who have completed the RP will be faithful to challenge their fellow pastors.

Kenya Report

Charles Naibei, the National Facilitator for Kenya reported in July that it is becoming clear to him in his work for the RP that many pastors have not taken the opportunity to read the Bible. During a recent commissioning of pastors in Kitengela, Pastor Nelson Wanyonyi repented in front of the gathering, because prior to participating in the Romans Project challenge, he was just reading the Bible for the sake of preparing the sermon to preach to others on Sunday. Since he took time to repeatedly read the book of Romans, his life has changed and the church is growing in understanding the ways of God.

Please pray for pastors in Kenya to be changed through the Romans Project Challenge and desire to learn and grow in their understanding of God's word.

Gatherings Worldwide

During the month of July, more than twenty five Romans Project Invitation and Commissioning Gatherings were held worldwide. At Romans Project Gatherings, pastors are introduced to the Romans Project Challenge and are invited to participate by reading Romans twenty times and writing it out once by hand. Pastors who have completed the Challenge are then commissioned and receive their electronic devices. Pending final reports, an estimated 529 pastors were invited to participate, and 228 pastors were commissioned in July. It was a busy and fruitful month for the RP ministry!

Praise God for the diligence and faithfulness of our RP facilitators. Please pray for the continued growth of the Romans Project worldwide, including countries not yet open to the RP.
