

Ministry Update

It is with great excitement and anticipation that we enter a new year of ministry for the Romans Project! Many of the National Facilitators while reporting and giving thanks to God for His sustaining grace in 2023, likewise look forward in faith with plans for the expansion of the ministry in their countries in 2024.

“We thank God for guiding us through the challenges of 2023. With gratitude in our hearts, we eagerly anticipate a brighter and more successful 2024.” -Abel Nesbitt Banafoe, Ghana National Facilitator

“I am thankful to our God for being close to me all the time I called upon Him during the time of my illnesses this year. God willing in 2024, together with my regional men, we are planning to recruit 500 pastors this year.” –Doldiguim Boungar, Chad National Facilitator

South Sudan Update

Lukas Inyasio, the National Facilitator for South Sudan, had this to say in his December report: “As we closed the year, I would like to thank Almighty God for using RP in South Sudan to strengthen the church by reminding the leaders to do this challenging assignment of studying God’s Word. I know the Romans Project has become an engine that helps our faith to grow and has challenged many South Sudanese pastors to dwell in God’s Word. It has given spiritual energy to the pastors in some villages that RP has reached to preach from God’s Word.”

South Sudan Invitation Gathering

In 2024, Lukas is prayerfully planning to take the RP to eight other states in South Sudan. He is also praying that Pastor Scott’s teachings will be translated into Juba Arabic so that more pastors in Sudan and South Sudan can hear the teaching in their native language. Lukas recently challenged 80 pastors, some coming from Sudan, with the help of an English to Juba Arabic translator. To hear Lukas’ RP Invitation Gathering challenge, visit the Testimonial playlist on our new youtube.com/@romansproject channel.

Please pray that this translator or someone equally qualified will be willing to help with the translation of Pastor Scott’s teachings.

Prayer Requests for 2024

- Pray for health, strength, and unity for our National Facilitators and their Regional Coordinators as they minister together.

- Pray for boldness and clarity as they share the vision of the RP with their fellow pastors.
- Pray for pastors to continue developing a zeal to read and write the book of Romans.
- Pray for protection for the facilitators and their families.
- Pray for the RP to open in new countries and new regions.
- Pray for the Lord to continue to meet the financial needs of the ministry.

“I have been a dedicated pastor since 1998, but reading the book of Romans 20 times and writing it by hand once for the first time in my life was a special blessing for me. This way of studying further trains us in the Word of God for our ministry...I encourage the pastors of Guinea to devote themselves body and soul to this study, and to the organizers to continue with the training.”

-Pastor Edouard KAMANO in the prefecture of Guéckédou, Guinea
