

Equipping pastors to abide in and feed their congregations from God's Word.

Report from Ghana

Country Facilitator, Abel Banafoe recently reported that the Romans Project is gaining new horizons, reaching two new regions of Ghana and giving him access to their Chieftaincy, (Most of their chiefs do not know God or the Bible.) Abel has an opportunity to meet with these chiefs and is scheduled to speak with them in the coming weeks.

Praise God for opening this door for the Gospel. Pray for Abel to have wisdom and clarity as he speaks, and for the chiefs to be responsive to his message.

Abel Banafoe & RP Graduate

Abel also shared how many pastors in the north are doing the Romans Project together - literally. They meet together in small groups and read "Romans Out Loud Together" (ROLT). They still fulfill the requirement of reading it 20 times, they just read it together as a group, and afterward they copy it out individually. This method is spurring many on to complete the Challenge!

Report from Rwanda

Justin Birangwa, the Country Facilitator in Rwanda attended an event in Musanze recently, where he met with pastors and explained about the Romans Project. Six pastors accepted to take the RP initial challenge.

Justin was also able to meet with three pastors who are RP graduates. He expressed how it was "a great joy to meet with them again where I encouraged them to multiply themselves." (All graduates are exhorted to tell others about the RP Challenge and thereby multiply the number of pastors and church leaders who participate.)

There are presently 54 other pastors that Justin stays in touch with and encourages to complete the RP Challenge. Most of them are still in the reading phase, but two men, Rev. Alexandre and Pastor Zamani Pierre just completed the Challenge. Zamani told Justin that he has four more pastors who want to start!

Sadly there are some who are finding themselves too busy with other obligations to complete the Challenge. Justin encouraged one such pastor by reminding him of the beauty of abiding in God's word.

Pray for God to help Justin be an encouragement to the pastors he tells about the RP, and to those he leads through the Challenge.

We have been busy making some updates to our website. If you haven't checked it out recently, we invite you to do so.

In addition to finding an archive of all our monthly newsletters, we recently added more testimonies to the IMPACT page. Now you can read, in their own words, the impact the Romans Project is having on pastors around the globe.
