Kelo graduation meeting

January in Burkina Faso

Testimonials of those who have recently completed the readings of Romans are always a joy to hear. One graduate in Burkina Faso wrote, "Reading the epistle to the Romans strengthened me in the love I must have for my enemies and in the fact that Jesus was faithful and He will always remain so."

This reading allowed me to become aware of the grace that God grants to us through Jesus Christ. This reading also gave me a taste for daily reading of the Word of God. This exercise allowed me to read other portions of the Bible'

Teaching time in Burkina Faso

At this present time there are 841 people currently engaged in the reading portion of the project. Reading groups are being set up where men can encourage one another as they participate in the project. There is also a conference being organized entitled "Faith in the epistle of Paul to the Romans" where men can fellowship with each other around the reading of God's Word.
